Hence, as you all know the situation in this prison is worsening. They are insulting Allah's book. They are aggressive, hatred, and harmful to those who are faithful to their faith, honor, minds, and bodies. For the past four years, there has been continuous psychological and physical harm; especially in isolations at Romeo, Echo, and camp five. The enemies of Allah have declared war against us. I ask Allah to through our work, to glory His book and religion I ask Allah save his believers, those who worship Him. I ask Allah, to release them from their captivity, and to diminish the infidels! I ask Allah, to resuscitate the Muslim youth.

I advice you to fear Allah and to work through faith, this religion will not rise without sacrifice.
