Summary of Incident: At approximately 0750hrs 08 February 2004, Block personnel approached detainees housed in the ___ for the purpose of conducting cell searches; all detainees refused. Block personnel informed the detainees that the cell searches were not optional; and again, the detainees refused. After the detainees refused the chain of command at Camp 2/3, at approximately 0756hrs the primary IRF team at Camp 2/3 was assembled, medical support was called along with video camera support, and the recreation area prepped for purposes. Once medical support and video support were present at block, each of the detainees were given another opportunity to comply and refused yet again. The commanding officer of the detainees, ordered the 5 person IRF team to enter into their respective cells and forcibly removed detainees from their respective cells and move each one to the recreation area for purposes. Once in the recreation area, all detainees received medical attention, which consisted of Once medical personnel cleared each of the detainees, the IRF team moved detainees to their respective cells. The cell extraction of detainees went well. There were no injuries to any of the assigned block personnel, IRF team members or detainees.

I want to make the following statement under oath:

On February 8, 1998 at approx 0730 hrs, I was called to respond to a call on Block. The reason for the call was that the detainees were refusing to come out of their cells for a cell search. At 0730, we were only the number of detainees so we decided to use the minimum amount of force necessary. At 0735, the number of detainees had increased and I was trying to decide whether to use the minimum amount of force necessary. At 0740, we were called to Block to IRF the number of detainees had increased and I was using the minimum amount of force necessary.
