September 11th, and also denied knowledge of any rumors of plans of future attacks on the United States or United States interests.

Detainee: Yes.

Assisting Military Officer: This concludes his answers to the Unclassified Summary [of Evidence].

Presiding Officer: OK. It is his turn now.

Detainee: First question: How is your behavior? Answer: My behavior with the soldiers is without problems. Second question: If you get released, what will be your future and what's your goal? Answer: My goal for the future is like most people's goals who love and adore security and peace in life and who enjoy eating and drinking because they are free. And I would like to work the same work as my father, [who is] an employee. Third question: Why do you not pose a threat to the U.S. and its allies? Third Answer: First of all, I am free of the charges that allege that I pose a threat. I am not like Usama bin Laden or one of his followers to know how to pose a threat against you or to know and to plan how to hurt you in any way possible. Fourth question: Reason why we should release you? Answer: The reason for my release is your knowledge of me and your conviction that I do not pose a threat.

Presiding Officer: Is there more?

Detainee: No, sir.

Presiding Officer: Thank you for appearing today in front of the board.

Detainee: Your welcome.

Presiding Officer: It is good to know that you are as interested in your freedom as we are in determining whether or not you are a threat to the United States and its allies.

Detainee: Thank you.

Presiding Officer: We don't intend to interrogate you but we do have some questions that we like to have answers for.

Detainee: Ask.

UNCLASSIFIED//FOUO

Board Member: I understand the situation is difficult. Perhaps you will not find my questions too stressful. What is the highest education level you have obtained?

Detainee: First of high school.

Board Member: First year of high school?

The linguist explains that high school is divided into two parts, the first part is three years and the second part is four years. The total for high school is seven years.

Detainee: First [part] of high school.

Board Member: What was your primary field of academic study?

Detainee: Religious subjects, mathematics, English, [and] literature.

Board Member: What was the reason you stopped attending high school?

Detainee: Hatred [towards] education.

Board Member: Prior to traveling to Afghanistan in 2000, did you live at home with your parents?

Detainee: Yes, I lived with them in the house.

Board Member: What is your father's occupation?

Detainee: An employee in [the] administration of education.

Board Member: Does that mean that he works for the Saudi government as an educator?

Detainee: He is not [an] educator. He is only a secretary.

Board Member: Very good. Do you have any relatives that live in Afghanistan or Pakistan?

Detainee: No, I don't have any relatives [that live in Afghanistan or Pakistan].

Board Member: When you left your homeland to travel to Afghanistan, did you travel alone or were you with a colleague?

Detainee: Alone.

Board Member: Had you ever previously visited Afghanistan or Pakistan?

Detainee: No.

Enclosure (6)

Board Member: Did you contact anyone in Afghanistan to let them know you were planning on visiting that country before you went there?

Detainee: No, I didn't.

Board Member: Do you speak Pashto?

Detainee: No.

Board Member: Did you seek your father's approval or his guidance prior to traveling to Afghanistan?

Detainee: Yes, I did.

Board Member: Did he advise that this was a worthwhile thing to do or did he encourage you not to do that?

Detainee: He told me [to] work inside Saudi Arabia.

Board Member: Your father suggested that you provide your charitable services into Saudi instead of going to Afghanistan?

Detainee: They are poor in Saudi.

Board Member: I understand. I believe I understand that your father wanted you to stay in Saudi and perform your charity vice going to Afghanistan?

Detainee: Yes, sir.

Board Member: Why did you disobey your father and go to Afghanistan or why did you not listen to his advice?

Detainee: People of Saudi have a materialistic appearance but Afghani people are [the] opposite [way].

Board Member: When you traveled to Afghanistan you had 90,000 riyals, why did you not exchange that money for Afghani money before you visited Afghanistan?

Detainee: I exchanged [it] in Afghanistan.

Board Member: Considering Afghanistan was a country that had internal conflicts, that you would be carrying a large amount of money with you, that you were [a] relatively youthful man, that you don't speak the native language, did you contact the Saudi embassy, the Red Cross or any other relief organizations and ask for their advice regarding your travels to Afghanistan?

Detainee: No, I did not.

UNCLASSIFIED//~~FOUO~~

Board Member: It did not occur to you or [did you] just not consider doing that?

Detainee: [From] what we [knew] the country of Taliban was free of stealing and attacking people on the streets to take their money.

Board Member: I only have a few more questions. How long did you expect to remain in Afghanistan when you first traveled there?

Detainee: That depended on the distribution of my money...my charity.

Board Member: But you must have had some idea that you would be there for a week, a month, longer?

Detainee: Approximately a [few] months...from six months and up.

Board Member: Therefore you must have taken some luggage and personal belongings with you.

Detainee: Sure.

Board Member: How much luggage did you take with you?

Detainee: One.

Board Member: One suitcase?

Detainee: Yes.

Board Member: Your name appears on various computer media that associates you with al Qaida. Do you know why anyone would put information identifying you on these computers? Do you have enemies?

Detainee: It might be a name that is similar to my name and I don't believe my name was there.

Board Member: One last question, if you could change one decision you've made in the past five years, what would it be?

Detainee: What decision do you mean?

Board Member: When you look back over the past five years of your life, you've made decisions. Some have turned out good and some of have turned out perhaps not so good. If you could change one of those decisions you made, what would it be?

Detainee: In the past years my work was to help.

The question was rephrased in order for the Detainee to fully understand its meaning.

Detainee: I, if I go to Saudia now, I would decide not to leave Saudia at all [out of] fear of problems.

Board Member: I have a few questions. Again, thank you for being here.

Detainee: Your welcome.

Board Member: I am just curious. Do you think that 90,000 riyals would be a lot of money in Afghanistan? Correct?

Detainee: Yes.

Board Member: What was you...how would you...now you would become fairly popular pretty quickly if they knew you were going to give out 90,000 riyals...what was your...what would be your method of deciding who was needy and who to give the money to? How would you ascertain that?

Detainee: The donation was from [an] Afghani person named Muhammed Khan. He was in charge of distributing the money [amongst] the needy people. I am responsible to God about this money. If I make a donation I want to make sure [about] where it is going. [Because of the] fact that it was with Muhammed Khan, I wanted to make sure that I saw where it went when I donated it.

Board Member: So Mr. Khan would suggest where and to whom and how much...the money...or was that your decision...how much to give?

Detainee: That was the decision of the Taliban government. They are the ones who knew the poor people.

Board Member: So I guess my question is...did you just give them the 90,000 riyals all at one time or did you distribute them over a period of time?

Detainee: I gave them 90,000 riyals all at one time. I took a little bit out of it...what I needed to live with.

Board Member: And you decided to stay just to watch them distribute the money or...

Detainee: Yes.

Board Member: My next question is, can you describe what happened when you were across the border into Pakistan and you were captured? Can you describe what happened during that time?

Detainee: At that time I was sick and I didn't know what happened exactly.

Board Member: Were you unconscious or did you walk across...

Detainee: One thing that I know [is] that there were some civilians that belonged to the government. They captured me and then I went to Pakistan and then I went to the prison in Pakistan.

Board Member: So it was a relatively peaceful, unordinary capture? Just like a...

Detainee: Yes, I [turned] myself [in]...I surrendered.

Board Member: Thank you.

Detainee: Your welcome.

Presiding Officer: When you were captured were you alone or were other people with you?

Detainee: People were with me.

Presiding Officer: Did you know them from [before] or...

Detainee: No, I didn't know them. Even at that time I didn't know them because I was sick.

Presiding Officer: You mentioned Muhammed Khan. Was he a member of the Taliban?

Detainee: I know that he works for the Taliban.

Presiding Officer: You were in Afghanistan for approximately one year. What happened for an entire year? What did you mainly do for a year?

Detainee: I worked rescuing needy people.

Presiding Officer: Were you alone most of this time or with other people?

Detainee: [I was] with people.

Presiding Officer: What happened to your passport?

Detainee: [It is] in Kabul.

Presiding Officer: Was it with friends or family in Kabul or where in Kabul?

Detainee: [It is] in the house.

Presiding Officer: What is the status of your family now?

Detainee: From what I know in the letters they are doing well.

Presiding Officer: [Do] they know where you are?

Detainee: Yes.

Presiding Officer: Do they know why you are here?

Detainee: I don't know.

Presiding Officer: How can you assure us that you are no longer a threat to the United States?

Detainee: From your knowledge and if you are convinced...my behavior here for example. It depends on your knowledge and your convictions.

Presiding Officer: Let me see if I understand what you have told us so far. When you were around eighteen years old, you raised ninety thousand riyals; Saudi Arabian money, to take to a country you had never been to before to give the money to the needy and the poor people. Is that right?

Detainee: Yes.

Presiding Officer: That is remarkable. Does this conclude your statement and answers?

Detainee: Yes.

The Assisting Military Officer had no further questions for the Detainee.

The Designated Military Officer had no further questions for the Detainee.

The Presiding Officer read the post-Administrative Review Board instructions to the Detainee and adjourned the open session of the Administrative Review Board.
