UNCLASSIFIED SUMMARY OF BASIS FOR TRIBUNAL DECISION

(Enclosure (1) to Combatant Status Review Tribunal Decision Report)

TRIBUNAL PANEL: _____ #19
ISN #: _____ 197

1. Introduction

As the Combatant Status Review Tribunal Decision Report indicates, the Tribunal has determined that this Detainee is properly classified as an enemy combatant and is a member of the Moroccan Islamic Fighting Group, and affiliated with, al-Qaida and Taliban forces. In reaching its conclusions, the Tribunal considered both classified and unclassified information. The following is an account of the unclassified evidence considered by the Tribunal. Any classified evidence considered by the Tribunal is discussed in Enclosure (2) to the Combatant Status Review Tribunal Decision Report.

2. Synopsis of Proceedings

The unclassified evidence presented to the Tribunal by the Recorder indicated the Detainee was associated with the Taliban and al Qaida. The Detainee traveled in June 2001 from Damascus, Syria, through Turkey and Iran, to Jalalabad, Afghanistan. Prior to helping form the Moroccan Islamic Fighting Group (GICM), the Detainee was involved with Jama'at Al-Tablighi. Jama'at Al-Tablighi is a Pakistan-based Islamic missionary organization that is being used as a cover to mask travel and activities of terrorists, including members of al Qaida. The Detainee was the head of the Military Commission of the GICM. The GICM is associated with and supported by other known terrorist groups, including the: Libyan Islamic Fighting Group (LIFG), Hizb-E Islami Gulbuddin (HIG), al Qaida, Egyptian Islamic Jihad (EIJ), Egyptian National Tarouat Salah, the Taliban and the Algerian Armed Islamic Group (GIA). The GICM allies itself with al Qaida and has supplied personnel for al Qaida for operations abroad. The GICM, with assistance from al Qaida, planned to carry out attacks against U.S. citizens in foreign countries. The Detainee associated with known al Qaida members. The Detainee is associated with a former Afghan-Arab linked to an al Qaida sleeper cell in Morocco. The Detainee obtained AK-47 rifles and a mortar from the Taliban. Members of the GICM trained in an area between Kabul and the front lines against the Northern Alliance, where they fired AK-47 Rifles. The Detainee left Jalalabad on foot in November 2001, when the city fell, and was arrested by the Pakistani Police on 19 December 2001 as he tried to cross the Afghanistan-Pakistan border. The Detainee chose to participate in the Tribunal process. The Detainee did not call any witnesses. The Detainee did not request any classified or unclassified documents be produced. The Detainee, in his oral statement, denied being a member of the Moroccan Islamic Fighting Group (GICM) or affiliated with al Qaida or the Taliban.

3. Evidence Considered by the Tribunal

The Tribunal considered the following evidence in reaching its conclusions:

- a. Exhibits: D-a, R-1 through R-22
- b. Testimony of the following persons: None
- c. Sworn statement of the Detainee.

4. Rulings by the Tribunal on Detainee Requests for Evidence or Witnesses

The Detainee requested no witnesses and requested no additional evidence be produced; therefore, no rulings on these matters were required.

5. Discussion of Unclassified Evidence

The Tribunal considered the following unclassified evidence in making its determinations:

a. The recorder offered Exhibits R-1 and R-2 into evidence during the unclassified portion of the proceeding. Exhibit R-1 is the Unclassified Summary of Evidence. While this summary is helpful in that it provides a broad outline of what the Tribunal can expect to see, it is not persuasive in that it provides conclusory statements without supporting unclassified evidence. Exhibit R-2 provided no usable evidence. Accordingly, the Tribunal had to look to classified exhibits for support of the Unclassified Summary of Evidence.

b. Essentially the only unclassified evidence the Tribunal had to consider was the Detainee's sworn testimony. A summarized transcript of the Detainee's sworn testimony is attached as CSRT Decision Report Enclosure (3). In sum, the Detainee stated that he did travel in June 2001 from Damascus, Syria, through Turkey and Iran, to Jalalabad, Afghanistan. The Detainee stated he was involved with Jama'at Al-Tablighi in Morocco but denies any knowledge of the Moroccan Islamic Fighting Group (GICM). The Detainee states he never received any military training. When asked about his affiliation with various terrorist organizations, the Detainee denied being associated with or supporting the Libyan Islamic Group, the Egyptian Islamic Jihad, the Egyptian National Tarouat Salah, al Qaida, the Taliban, or the Algerian Armed Islamic Group (GIA). The Detainee stated he did obtain AK-47s from the Taliban but they were for self-defense. The Detainee stated he did travel to Afghanistan for humanitarian work. The Detainee stated that he opened a Moroccan guesthouse in Afghanistan to protect Moroccans. The Detainee stated that they were not fighters and after the U.S. started bombing Afghanistan, the Moroccan guesthouse was vacated and locked, and everyone went their own ways. The Detainee went to Jalalabad, which he states was the closest city to Pakistan, but after Jalalabad fell, the Detainee escaped into the mountains. The Detainee was subsequently arrested by the Pakistani police once in Pakistan and turned over to the U.S..

The Tribunal also relied on certain classified evidence in reaching its decision. A discussion of the classified evidence is found in Enclosure (2) to the Combatant Status Review Tribunal Decision Report.

6. Consultations with the CSRT Legal Advisor

No issues arose during the course of this hearing that required consultation with the CSRT legal advisor.

7. Conclusions of the Tribunal

Upon careful review of all the evidence presented in this matter, the Tribunal makes the following determinations:

- a. The Detainee was mentally and physically capable of participating in the proceeding. No medical or mental health evaluation was deemed appropriate.
- b. The Detainee understood the Tribunal proceedings. The Detainee asked no questions regarding his rights and actively participated in the hearing, as indicated in Exhibit D-a.
- c. The Detainee is properly classified as an enemy combatant and is a member of the Moroccan Islamic Fighting Group (GICM), and affiliated with al Qaida and Taliban forces.

8. Dissenting Tribunal Member's report

None. The Tribunal reached a unanimous decision.

Respectfully submitted,

Colonel, U.S. Army
Tribunal President

Summarized Detainee Sworn Statement

The Tribunal President read the Hearing Instructions to the Detainee and confirmed that the Detainee understood and had no questions.

The Personal Representative presented the Detainee Election Form (Exhibit D-A) to the Tribunal.

The Recorder presented the Unclassified Summary of Evidence (Exhibit R-1) to the Tribunal.

The Recorder presented Exhibits R-2 and R-3 into evidence and gave a brief description of the contents of the Unclassified Summary of Evidence (Exhibit R-1).

The Recorder confirmed that he had no further unclassified evidence or witnesses and requested a closed Tribunal session to present classified evidence.

The Tribunal President opened the Tribunal to the Detainee to make his statement and asked if he would like to make his statement under oath.

The Detainee stated that would like to make his statement under oath.

The Recorder administered the Muslim oath to the Detainee.

Personal Representative: He will begin with an opening statement.

Detainee: The story of my life. I can start now by telling you that all of those accusations are false. If you like or if it is important to you, I can explain to you or tell you who Yunis is.

Tribunal President: Let me tell you first that is the only information that we have seen on you to this point. So anything that you think would be helpful to us please feel free to tell us.

Detainee: Good. In the name of merciful God, people in this detention facility have met with their lawyers who are American citizens. All of the lawyers advise them to not talk to the Tribunal. Not even personal information. Trusting myself, I know I'm not an enemy combatant. I'm not an enemy of anyone. I've never fought anyone. For that reason I'm speaking and I hope the Tribunal members will take this as the truth. After meeting with my Personal Representative, I had a lot to write and not a lot of time to prepare myself to give my statement. I've heard a lot of points, including my life in Morocco and leaving Morocco and traveling to Pakistan. I stayed for about six years in Pakistan. I was there for studying and humanitarian reasons. I left Pakistan and went to Yemen to study. For the same reason I went to Syria and stayed for three years. In the sixth month of year 2001, I went to Afghanistan to do humanitarian work. I spoke before about who is Bin Laden and the truth of who are the Taliban and all those groups that were mentioned in the accusations and the incident of September 11th and me leaving Pakistan and being given to American forces. The last place was Kandahar and then later I was taken to Cuba. I have a lot of words to say and I don't know how to tell all 14 years of my life in one hour.

The Detainee began to retrieve the written notes that he had in his shirt pocket. The translator assisted the Detainee in getting the pages of his statement in numerical order to allow the Detainee to continue his statement.

Detainee: My name is Yunis Abdurrahman Shokuri. I was born in Morocco on 5/4/68. My family is very poor, made of nine males and five females. I studied middle school and high school in the same city in Morocco. In 1988, I decided to leave to and complete my studies somewhere else. My hope was to go to Europe and finish my studies there. I never had the chance to go but there was a chance for me to go to Pakistan. Pakistan had a special place in my heart from what I heard from the al-Tabligh (ph) groups about this country.

3.a.1. The Detainee traveled in June 2001 from Damascus, Syria through Turkey and Iran to Jalalabad, Afghanistan.

The first accusation was about al-Tabligh group. I still do not understand because we can split that accusation into two, so if you could repeat it to me please.

Personal Representative: I will repeat it for you.

Detainee: I'm sorry. I want number two.

Personal Representative: Okay, I'll read it in English first.

3.a.2. Prior to helping the Moroccan Islamic Fighting Group (GICM), the Detainee was involved with Ja'am al-Tabligh.

Detainee: It's not understood that point very well. I do not know that group at all. I have never heard of it at all. I dare anyone that would even find any evidence or any name or anything about this group against me. All the groups in the world have a newspaper or maybe a paragraph about them and some kind of newspaper about certain groups. Moroccan fighters, I've heard of them at all. I don't know who made that up. Most of this accusation is about this group and I do not know about this fighting group. I do not know them. The other one about the al-Tabligh group, I will give you a summary of the al-Tabligh and who they are.

Ja'am al-Tabligh was established in the country of India from the hands of one of the Indian Scientists, Sheik Kandaholi (ph). This happened about one hundred or one hundred and fifty years ago. It's an Islamic missionary group. It forbids violence against anyone. It asks for forgiveness and love for all the people. No discrimination against any religion. Islam is a message from God to all the people. Whoever is convinced of this religion, is free to decide rather to take that religion or not take that religion. The way they are is that they have good manners that were brought by the prophet Mohammed, peace upon him, and all the other prophets also. It is a worth while group. In the past one hundred and fifty years no one has accused it of anything, violence or terrorism. All the people know their ideology and their idea. Violence or terrorism or hatred were not used by any members of this group or any of that group. Their numbers are in millions. Their slogan is that there is no politics in religion and religion has no politics. They understand the jihad, the jihad against self and the devil. Fighting is forbidden. Also another slogan is that the people of Adam or humanitarian to be peaceful and not fighters or killers. My relationship to that group is that I met them in my country (Morocco) in 1985. I was raised on the hands of the members of that group. After leaving Morocco, I had no connection to that group whatsoever. Especially in Pakistan, I did not know anyone from that group there. I do not know where they came up with this accusation that I have a connection in Pakistan. Even if something was made up about this group, the whole world would know that it's not true. I spoke about this in the interrogation multiple times. I told them that accusation is stupidity given by the Americans to the world, because the world knows the truth about those people. I want to notify you also that all the interrogations, which are over 150 times that I have been interrogated, I spoke the truth, the whole truth. I gave everything I have to the investigators or interrogators. All my advices that were given to the interrogators, even if they were useless, in my eyes, maybe to them it will be useful against those incidents that were happening in those days.

I will complete my story. In the year 1990, I left Morocco and went to Pakistan. My sister and her husband accompanied me with my older brother. I went for immigration reasons. This immigration is the prophets way too, Prophet Mohammed peace be upon him, Prophet Moses peace upon him, and Prophet Abraham and Jesus peace upon him, they all immigrated, they went from one place to another. My reason was to finish my studies. For sure my family was stabled in Bashower (ph) city. I followed this group that my sister's husband worked for called the Humanitarian Committee. The Humanitarian Committee is based in Saudi Arabia to support the immigrants and orphans of Afghanis. After months I followed the same committee and after a year in 1991, my sister's husband passed away. I became responsible for the family. My brother went back to Morocco. After a period of time, in the beginning of 1993, my sister went back to Morocco also. In that time period I worked with another humanitarian committee called Islamic Humanitarian Charity. In 1994, I registered and studied at the Islamic University in Islamabad.

I had an idea and decided to finish my studies. In this time period 1993, both of my parents passed away. My relationship to Morocco was just my parents. My brothers have their own families and their own lives and situations. I didn't have anything in Morocco. No house, work, or anything. My situation at the University did not help me at all because my financial status was very difficult. The study hours of the program were very difficult because it went by hours and not by years. I had to find another way to finish my studies and I'd thought about Yemen a lot. The study there is more affordable. People always say that hearing is not always what you see. The situation there was not better the situation in Pakistan. I spent three months there. I registered officially in a Community College.

Even getting a visa was very difficult there. I decided to go to Syria because I heard that education in Syria is much better and studying there is much better and for sure that was true. But registering at the college was very difficult also. They had multiple programs but they had many, many religious instructors. During my stay in Syria, I worked as a student in a Mosque with an Imam. I worked as a merchant also doing trade and sell. The first I see in Syria people who are Muslims and Christians living in peace together following the same rules in the same country. Even the Sheiks or the chiefs of tribes were always forgiving, especially religious forgiving. They took importance on education. Educating the heart and the mind are very important. I benefited a lot in that field.

At the end of year of 1999, I married a young Algerian woman and this was strange that a Moroccan man married an Algerian woman. This was strange especially considering the number women of in Morocco. We have a lot of women in Morocco. Marriage there is much easier, getting married there is.

In 1994 there was an incident that happened in my life that changed it in many ways. It didn't happen to me personally but it happened to my brother who was living with me in Pakistan. When my brother returned to Morocco, he worked in the bureau office and all his work was in Pakistan. I have all official paperwork to prove that. When my brother returned to Morocco, I stayed there a period of time. The Moroccans arrested him. He was tortured in the prison and was put under surveillance. This caused my family to live in fear. During this time my parents passed away. So I told my brothers and sisters that I wanted to come to Morocco, they all advised me to not come back to Morocco, because they did not want problems. If I returned back there I would not have a house to live in and would be forced to live with my brothers. All my brothers said they didn't want me to return. For me, I decided to not go back to Morocco I did not want to put myself in an awkward situation to the government, to me, or to anyone else. Even then I did not have anything strange going on in my life. I was in Pakistan and I was registered at the Moroccan Embassy and through the Embassy I registered at the university. Everyone who went from Morocco to Pakistan was arrested. Any Moroccan that went to Pakistan who went back to Morocco was arrested and his passport was taken away from him and he was interrogated. So this caused me to cut all of my connections to Morocco. For that reason I preferred to marry a woman that wasn't Moroccan. In the year of 2001, my financial situation was very difficult. In Syria I couldn't find a job that would fit me. In the sixth month of 2001 I chose to travel to Afghanistan. At the beginning, I wanted to go to Pakistan but they were forcing all of the Arabs out. I heard all the charity organizations left Pakistan and went to Afghanistan. So, I thought that maybe I would find the same line of work that I was working before there. Especially charity work is a big thing in life. Helping the needy, the poor, and the Orphans. Especially in our religion, it's a duty. It's what God wants from us. So now I will answer why I traveled from Syria to Iran and then to Afghanistan.

3.a.1. The detainee traveled in June 2001 from Damascus, Syria, through Turkey and Iran, to Jalalabad, Afghanistan.

Detainee: I am very shocked that this travel is an accusation. My Moroccan passport allows me to travel to any place in the world, even Israel, which most passports are not allowed to travel. I traveled on an official visa. I chose that path because it was cheaper for me. I've never hear from any country to forbid that kind of travel. So I do not know how this travel could be an accusation against me. My travel to Afghanistan again was to find work and for sure when I got to Afghanistan I got stabled in Kabul city. Over there I found a house that belonged to Moroccans. So when I arrived to Pakistan I found a lot of Moroccans in that place. I felt very strange to travel to a country and find brothers that are willing to help others, especially people from Morocco. When I went there, I did not find employment. There was only charity organization there. They allow Saudis to work there. When I arrived there, my wife had a very strange disease, gas in the kidneys. I had never heard of that before. There was no treatment for that in Kabul. So I decided to leave. But exiting Afghanistan was not as easy entering Afghanistan. Entering Afghanistan is not like exiting Afghanistan. I tried with all my will and effort to leave but it was almost impossible. I was hoping for things to get better but I still wanted to leave as soon as possible. During that time I was active in something very simple. I can talk about it if you would like. I find it like a charity work and work that God likes according to me. But I do not know if your holiness would agree with this or not. When I arrived in Afghanistan, I found a group of Moroccan youth and they were all complaining about one thing. A lot of people want to use the Moroccans. How come a lot of people want to use them? We had to find a solution for this problem. We chose to open a guesthouse for the Moroccan to protect them from other ideas. We did not succeed in this a lot. The guesthouse only had 17 people. All of these people did not have a connection to anything that has to do with fighting. They were not fighters. They had no connection to and were not associated with any other group at all. Most of them were homeless or they did not have anyone. But they were convinced about the same thing that what happens in Afghanistan (incomplete thought).

I want to talk about a situation or a story. The people in the guesthouse had the same ideas about who the Taliban was and the truth about Bin Laden and other groups in Afghanistan. The group had a special program so no fingers were pointed or accused of anything from Arabs or anything like that.

I will start in the Moroccan house. This house had no enemies what so ever; it was not enemy to anybody. Far away some old accusations were put against it. They did not have any personal enemies and they were not enemies of any side. Even the Taliban and all the accusations they had against them. The leader of the Northern Alliance (inaudible) and all the militias belonging to that group, to Dostum (ph). This speaking of Afghan, this group in that guesthouse, the Moroccan house, died there fighting with the Taliban and anyone else was stupidity and there is no value and no benefits in fighting. In our religion of Islam, it teaches us to forgive other Muslims, forgive them. And the fighting between Muslims is forbidden. The fighting between Afghan, between themselves, lasted for about 20 years. There was value and no good came out of that fighting between those people. The best thing to do is sit somewhere far, far away from those people and what's happening in that country. That's what happened. Even our program in the guesthouse, we had a program about studying and education. We had another house outside Kabul, the same house that was called Amal Jahadar (ph). It had no connection what so ever to fighting. I've never heard of that before. Jahadar (ph) is taken from the jihad against the inner self and against Satan, like I said before. If you want me to talk to you about the Amal Jahadar (ph) I can tell you the ideology and anything you would like about it. If you want to ask me about the fighters, the combatants or the fighters, I do not know anything about that. Something else also, something else was mentioned, like we had a camp or something and we shot Kalashnikovs?

Personal Representative: It was number ten in the summary of evidence.

3.a.10. The Detainee obtained AK-47 rifles and a mortar from the Taliban.

Detainee: We had an AK-47 to protect ourselves. The mortar was not working. It was broken. It did not belong to me personally. It was not mine. I said it multiple times that I did not train and did have a personal weapon and did not need that at anytime. There is another thing after that.

Personal Representative: Would you like me read all of the accusations now?

Detainee: No, I'm stilling talking about...

Personal Representative: Another accusation or what?

Detainee: Something about the front lines.

Tribunal President: Perhaps number eleven.

3.a.11. Members of the GICM trained in an area between Kabul and the front lines against the Northern Alliance where they fired AK-47s.

Detainee: This is not true. The truth is that we had a house outside Kabul. It was a very big, vacant house. We found the place because we wanted to be outside the city. It was very far away from fighting alliances, about five hours and about half an hour away from the Kabul city. We did not see any fighters. We did not have fighters by us. We did not hear fighting. We did not see fighting at all. That weapon was to guard the place. There were all different kinds of animals living around that place. There were also, thieves, smugglers, and robbers. We took that weapon from the Taliban government. We did not buy it from the black market. In the ninth month (September), when the incident happened, they returned the weapon that was giving for us and it was not used to fight at all. Like I said before this place was to raise self. Especially for people who want to look at the sky and the stars and pray and meditate. Even the new people that came to the house, liked the weather and the sun. They never wanted to go to other places or to other camps. They stayed there because they liked the place. It was a very nice place. It had water and greenery, and a big garden. I do not know what's strange about being in a house. We only stayed two months in that place and then we left it. The same guesthouse, we locked it after the incident of September 11th and every person went their way. There was no name left there with the name of Amal Jahadar (ph). It was not left there.

I can also talk about the situation of the Moroccan guesthouse after the incident of September 11th. After this strange incident which shocked the world, and the United States accused al Qaida and personally Usama Bin Laden, the manager at the Moroccan house met with everyone there. They decided to close the guesthouse. They advised everyone there to leave Afghanistan in anyway. It happened, the house was locked and everyone left at the end of September. I personally traveled to Jalalabad, which was the closest city to Pakistan or to exit Afghanistan. It is known by everyone in Afghanistan that Jalalabad has no connection to fighting in Afghanistan. After the Taliban government fell there, the rulers were tribal and so the situation there stayed stable. Something unexpected happened. One of those days, I do not know exactly when, maybe October, Kabul fell. A day before I was able to make my wife leave Jalalabad to Pakistan. What we decided was that on the next day I would follow her. Even though she only took a small amount of money, of Pakistani money, thinking that I would follow her the following day, I would be going to follow her and get the rest our... I was surprised the next day that Jalalabad fell. So all the roads and all the ways to Pakistan were stopped or they were cut. I was forced to escape with other people. The only way that was left was through the mountains. I stayed in a village there with Afghans. It was the month of Ramadan. I tried any and every way to leave the country. But all roads were very highly guarded. The person that was guarding those roads was an Afghani leader called [REDACTED] (ph). He was known to be a smuggler before. He is known for having raped a lot of women and killed a lot of people. It was impossible to put my life in danger and take those (inaudible) to fight this man. So on the twentieth of Ramadan, I tried anyway so I could meet with my wife before the holiday. One of the Afghans went with me. It took us about a week and we entered Pakistani land.

I will answer the point.

3.a.12. The Detainee left Jalabad on foot in November of 2001 when the city fell and was arrested by Pakistani police on 19 Dec 01 as he tried to cross Afghanistan and Pakistan border.

Detainee: That is not true because I was in Pakistan. I was in Pakistan for two days. After that I decided to go from one city to another but in the market somebody saw me and noticed that I was Arabic. He started talking to me and the police interfered and said you shall come with us, so I went with them to the police station. They told me that they don't have any problems with me. They just want to make sure that my citizenship is Moroccan or not and we will send you to the Embassy in Islamabad. So they put me in a small prison and they took me by a vehicle to another prison. There I found other Arabs. I asked them how and where they were arrested and they told me they were trying to leave Afghanistan and they were arrested. Then at night, we were transferred to another jail with a larger group of people. Later I found myself in another prison and over there I found a group of people who are with me in this place now. From that prison we were given to American soldiers. With all this travel I've seen any fighting, an American airplane, the Northern Alliance, I haven't seen any of that. That's my story.

Personal Representative: Would you like to now go through each one of these evidences and get your response?

Detainee: Yes.

Personal Representative: I know you have already answered a lot of them but we can go through.

3.a.1. The Detainee traveled in June 2001 from Damascus (ph) Syria through Turkey and Iran to Jalalabad, Afghanistan.

Detainee: Yes.

Personal Representative: I believe you answered more than that. Is there anything else you would like to add to the point that you haven't already?

Detainee: No.

3.a.2. Prior to helping form the Moroccan Islamic Fighting group (GICM), the Detainee was involved with Ja'am al-Tabligh.

Detainee: I answered that question that I was with al-Tabligh group in Morocco and I did not have any connection to them when I left Morocco. And the second part of that question, the GICM, I've never heard of that group. Never heard of that group before. I want to tell the Tribunal Members that there are a lot of Moroccans in Afghanistan. I don't know exactly what they are talking about honestly.

3.a.3. Ja'am al-Tabligh is a Pakistan based Islamic missionary organization that has been used as cover mask travel and activities of terrorist including members of al Qaida.

Detainee: Answering that question, it's impossible. The al-Tabligh group don't allow any of their people to talk about violence, jihad, or hatred or anything to do with that. The world intelligence should know that. Security inside the al-Tabligh group is very strong. They don't allow anyone suspected of being a terrorist or anyone who is suspected of sitting with them. Even if he is in there and he says something that's wrong, they will tell him to leave the meeting. I do not know how to answer that.

3.a.4. The Detainee was the head of the Military Commission of the GICM which is the Moroccan Islamic Fighting group.

Detainee: Like I said before, I've seen training. I have knowledge at all of military training. I've never received the training. And I've never heard this fighter group. In my whole life I've never heard of it.

3.a.5. The GICM is associated with and supported by other known terrorist groups including the Libyan Islamic Fighting Group...

Detainee: Can I answer point by point? The Libyan Fighting Group, the whole world knows that group. There were enemies between them and us, many enemies. The house of Moroccan and that group were enemies of each other. The reason for that was that this group, the Libyan Islamic Fighting Group accused the Moroccan house of being an intelligence house. We used to make people aware of the all the groups and keep them away from all the groups. Those people had some Moroccans with them. So they would say things about us that were not true. How can someone who is an enemy of someone else be a supporter at the same time. How could that be possible?

Personal Representative: The next group is Hizb-E Islami Gulbuddin.

Detainee: This political party was active in Afghanistan between the civil war from 1992 to 1995. This party was finished so how can the Moroccan have a connection with that group?

Personal Representative: al Qaida.

Detainee: I would like to talk on who is Bin Laden. I personally went to Afghanistan in 1990. I heard the name Bin Laden after the Gulf War. During this time, most people in Bishou (ph) were making us aware of this man. Almost telling us to stay away from this man. During that time, Bin Laden was nobody and everyone was accusing Usama Bin Laden of being Saudi intelligence agent or working for the Saudi government. And his wealth comes from the Saudi government, especially [REDACTED] (ph) the head of Saudi intelligence. After that, I heard that Bin Laden was stripped out of his Saudi citizenship and exiled from the kingdom. I was shocked that this would be a new game that the Saudi government would be playing with us. Especially during that time period there was fighting between Afghani's political parties and most people were taking a role of trying to bring peace between those political parties and bring them together.

Bin Laden was the only person who would leave Afghanistan and go to Sudan in a very strange way. He was supposedly to come in and try to bring peace between people but not leave the country and take all of his wealth and evacuate the country. When he got to Sudan, they received him like a hero. He became a close friend to Sudan's president and second person in charge in the Sudan. People were shocked. How could someone who was exiled, kicked out of their country to be third person in charge of Sudan? How could Sudan sacrifice a relationship with the world, Saudi Arabia for that person? Most people thought this man Bin Laden, was a double agent working for Saudi government. But he would not be a danger to anyone in anyway in these years.

Second, we heard that he would be leaving Sudan, going to Afghanistan and when the civil war between the political parties ended; he would leave Sudan and go to Afghanistan. Everyone was asking, what's the role of this man? Why did he come back? After that, we heard about the terrorist thing that happened in Kenya and in Nairobi. A lot of Muslims were victims of those attacks. People were asking why did he do this? People were questioning why he migrated so many Arabs that were living in Pakistan and moved them to Afghanistan. All of this was because of Bin Laden. A lot of people lost their business, their job, they lost almost everything because of this strange (thing) that Bin Laden did. After that we heard about another terrorist attack on an American ship in Yemen. People were shocked about this lunatic attack and it was done in the name of Islam.

In every meeting that happened, people would say that Usama Bin Laden is dangerous to the people, he's dangerous to us, he's dangerous to everyone around him. The people that made that aware to people was the Moroccan house. They would advise people about Bin Laden. I was one of the people that was telling others that Usama Bin Laden is someone dangerous, someone who is a bad person, and a crazy person and that what he does is bad for Islam. How can he be the only person in the world to say that jihad is fighting Americans? How could he just make that up? We were very honest in what we said against Bin Laden. For that reason, we received a lot of threats. But that was not important to us. We kept saying bad things about Bin Laden and about al Qaida.

Personal Representative: The next group is the Egyptian... Are you done with Bin Laden?

Detainee: What is the next group?

Personal Representative: The Egyptian Islamic Jihad.

Detainee: I do not know that name.

Personal Representative: Okay, the next one is the Egyptian National Tarouat Salah.

Detainee: I do not even know the meaning of the name.

Personal Representative: The next one is the Taliban.

Detainee: The Taliban came about around 1995. A person in Pakistani Intelligence wrote a book about the Taliban. The Taliban is made up by the Pakistani Army or the Pakistani Intelligence. Their interest is to do whatever is beneficial for the Pakistani government. So, most to the accusations or most of the things were pointed at the Taliban government and they would ask, who is Mullah Omar, where does he get his money, and where does he get his support? People in Afghanistan who had knowledge about the Afghani situation would make us aware and tell us about those people. Speaking of the Taliban or Sheik (inaudible), there was fighting between Muslims. According to me and other people in the Moroccan house, fighting between Muslims was forbidden and killer and the victim will be in Hell. How can these people be that way? That's what I have.

Personal Representative: Okay, and the last group is the Algerian Armed Islamic Group.

Detainee: The Moroccan house was established about 2000, 2001 by this Algerian group that is pretty old, maybe since 1992. They were known to have terrorist attacks in Algeria. It is known by all people that this is a terrorist group that killed women, children, and even animals. In Algerian there was two groups. Algerian Intelligence were killing people in the name of Islam and this terrorist group was killing people in the name of Islam and Islam is innocent of killing on both sides. So I do not know what they mean by support from those groups. I don't know what they mean. Those 17 people at that guesthouse and they were supporting all those groups in the world, how could that be possible? Honestly, that's like one of the jokes that heard in this place.

Personal Representative: Okay, the next piece of evidence is number six:

3.a.6. The GICM allies itself with al Qaida and supplies personnel for al Qaida for operations abroad.

Detainee: The Tribunal know now my opinion of Bin Laden and terrorism. I have no connection what so ever with al Qaida and ask the Tribunal, what is the evidence that you have to prove that point. I've been here for three years. If they ask right now about my wife, which is the closest person to me, I do not know anything about it.

Personal Representative: Okay, the next one is number seven:

3.a.7. The GICM, with assistance from al Qaida, planned to carry out attacks against U.S. citizens in foreign countries.

Detainee: That doesn't need an answer.

3.a.8. The detainee associated with known al Qaida members.

Detainee: Who are those members? If you ask me about any person, I will honestly answer you. But if you tell me that I knew people, I do not know people. If you ask me about an actor or an actress in America, I could answer about that. I will even tell you what kind of clothes they wear. But, how can I answer this kind of question? I assure you that I do not know anyone from al Qaida.

3.a.9. The detainee is associated with a former Afghan Arab linked to an al Qaida sleeper cell in Morocco.

Detainee: Like I said before, I do not know anyone from al Qaida. I am not connected to any al Qaida people. None of my friends or family have any connection to al Qaida and I dare you bring any person from al Qaida that says I am connected to them.

Personal Representative: Okay, the next one, ten, I know you already answered. Would you like to add something briefly?

3.a.10. The Detainee obtained AK-47 rifles and a mortar from the Taliban.

Detainee: Like I mentioned before, the weapon was taken from an official, officially and it was turned to the government after two months. It was not fighting at all.

Personal Representative: Okay, number eleven (read bullet), I know you answered this one as well. Do you want to add anything to your answer?

3.a.11. Members of the GICM trained in an area between Kabul and the front lines against the Northern Alliance where they fired AK-47s.

Detainee: Like I mentioned before, this house was for self-improvement, meditation for people to relax and spend some good time. It was a beautiful house with a nice garden. It had no connection to fighting, training, or anything like that.

Personal Representative: Okay, and the last one, number 12 (read bullet).

3.a.12. The Detainee left Jalalabad on foot in November of 2001 when the city fell and was arrested by Pakistani police on 19 Dec 01 as he tried to cross Afghanistan and Pakistan border.

Detainee: I answered that.

Personal Representative: I know you already answered that.

Tribunal President: Does that conclude your statement?

Detainee: I hope so.

Tribunal President: We may have some questions for you. Would you be willing to answer some questions?

Detainee: Any questions.

Tribunal President: Personal Representative, do you have any questions for the Detainee?

Personal Representative: No ma'am.

Tribunal President: Recorder, do you have any questions for the Detainee?

Recorder: No ma'am.

Tribunal President: Do any Tribunal Members have any questions for the Detainee.

Tribunal Member's questions :

Q. Sir, do you have any enemies which would fabricate evidence against you?

A. Yes.

Q. Who are those enemies?

A. There is a person who is here called [REDACTED] (ph).

Q. How is this person your enemy?

A. I did not know him before and I hadn't heard of his name. I was shocked at when I came to Cuba there was a person in front of me called [REDACTED] (ph). This person was a spy in Afghanistan and was arrested in Afghanistan. He was tortured by al Qaida and detained in the Taliban prison. One day I was joking with him and laughing so I was shocked when I heard a very strange story from him. He told me, "I apologize, I am sorry. I've talked about you in the investigation." I was shocked and wanted to know what he said and what happened. He said that in Kandahar, he was interrogated, detained, and tortured and a female interrogator took her clothes off in front of him and doing very strange things in front of him. When he saw an album of pictures he told them that I looked like a man that was detained and tortured in Afghanistan. He mentioned a name that was (inaudible). It was a name that I haven't heard before. I was shocked and everyone that was standing by was shocked as well. He said that later in the interrogation, he spoke to them and said that what he said was not true. He said that he made a mistake in identity because the picture looked like another. He said that he told them that had given them the wrong information. I was shocked that during the whole year the interrogators were speaking to me about the same subject. I would tell them to go to that person and them because that's how that information came about. That's the first person.

The second person is this Iraqi person here. His name is [REDACTED] (ph). This man is also a spy and was arrested in Afghanistan. He spent time in the detention facility in Kabul at the hands of the Taliban. I saw him first at the camp in Kabul. In the American military camp in Kabul. I spent about two months there. There was no conversation done between us, or any kind of relationship between us. When we came to Cuba, about a whole year we met at the same detention facility. This man with other groups of Iraqis made up a way or a solution, a very stupid solution, to how to leave this place. They are Shiites and all the Arabs that are here are Sunni. Those Arabs are enemies of America and those Shiite Iraqis were all friends of Americans. Those people did very strange things to cause problems and conflicts between Sunnis and Shiites. They cursed the Prophet wife, peace upon him and friends of the prophet, peace upon them, and religious scientist in general...

Q. If I could interrupt you, all I was interested in was what enemies you had. I appreciate your answer but it's getting a little more detailed then I really need it.

A. He's not an enemy with me, but I'm explaining to you how this came about.

This man, when they put me close to him. He started to curse other young people in the prison and those people were cursing him back. In about a month, he told me that he saw my picture in the investigation and he told them, "I do not know this man and this is the end of our investigation." But when this happened, the cursing between the group and him, he told me, he started to threaten me that he would accuse me of the same things he had accused [REDACTED] (ph) of. He threatened me with that.

Tribunal President: I want to thank you for participating today in this Tribunal. Is there anything else that you would like to present to us?

Detainee: I just want to make a small statement. Me (inaudible), the only way I know the United States is through movies from Hollywood or through cartoons. I'm a big fan of a lot of their singers. I was shocked, the first time I saw an American soldier was at Kandahar Air Base. This was the first time I had ever seen an American man. I do not want to talk about all the pain that I suffered. From the first moment that I was sent from Kandahar to Afghanistan or given by the Pakistani government or forces to the American forces, I spent five months in Kandahar. Maybe two years and five months in this place. All this I really do not want to think about the time. A lot of people investigated me and I've seen a lot of strange things. I wanted to mention some things that I think are important in this Tribunal.

If this Tribunal thinks of me as an Enemy Combatant I find that very strange and funny at the same time. I've never fought anyone and have never even had the interest to fight anyone. I'm not an enemy of anyone. I don't have an interest to be enemy of anyone in the future. I do not allow for anyone to call me an Enemy Combatant when I don't consider them to be enemies. I want to mention things that have happened to me in Cuba...

Tribunal President: Let's take a brief recess. We need to do that. Would you like some water or anything?

Detainee: Yes.

The Tribunal took a short recess and reopened after four minutes had passed.

Tribunal President: I'm sorry but we did need to take a recess. Please continue.

Detainee: When I came to Cuba, after two months of interrogation, I was offered something very strange. I do not know, I was talking to someone and I do not know what side they were from but it seemed to be that they are from International Terrorist Department of Defense. They asked me to work with them as an agent. To me, that was very strange. I refuse to work as a spy for any country in the world or for whatever was offered. I meant that but not as a spy. I agreed to do this on the basis of one reason. I felt it was religious obligation to fight Bin Laden. At that time, I was willing to put my life in danger just to get rid of that man Usama Bin Laden. The interrogators didn't take that seriously. After two years and five months that I have stayed here, I found that I was very weak person. Especially that I am an ill person. I am sick from top to bottom. At that time I was willing to do anything. Not for the United States or America honestly, but for the humanitarian issue. Especially, after I found my brothers being tortured in Kandahar and here. Especially after I have seen a person who was 105 years old that was pulled by the military and treated the worse way. Other similar aged people who were 85, 95 years old and sick people also who are here. They do have their own procedures but I was not able to do all that. How could all of these people suffer and not Bin Laden? A person who is willing to sacrifice his own life to get rid of an American enemy Usama Bin Laden how could he be an Enemy Combatant?

Also in Kandahar something strange happened. When I got to Kandahar I made responsible for the tent, which could hold 55 people and twice it has happened that a guard that came into the tent and he dropped his keys in the tent. The people were able to take those keys and do whatever they want. But twice I have taken those keys and given them back to the guard. Also, a soldier dropped his knife, which contained a spoon, fork, utensils, and can opener and people who did not care would have been able to do something with the knife. But, I took that knife and I gave it to the guard. We would always talk to the young people and tell them how the United States had justice and equality is not like Pakistan or other countries. Some of the young people were tortured and interrogated and were not well treated but when I spoke to them, I convince them that America is a country that goes by laws and is a just country. The truth is that the United States is the greatest country in this world. The United States has brought security to the world through all these operations like WWI and WWII. The United States has brought security to this world. So, I was shocked to see some of the American soldiers and how they act in front of people. I am even shocked at the American government.

When I first saw myself in Kandahar, it was like I was in a cinema or a movie. I saw a movie in 1996 called "The Siege". The movie was about terrorists carrying out terrorist attacks in the United States. This comes from being accused of that. The CIA and FBI were not successful in finding that terrorist group and the United States Army interfered and gathered all the people of Arabic decent and put them in a land cage or camp just like it happened in Kandahar. I was shocked, thinking am I in that movie or on a stage in Hollywood? Is this happening? Sometimes I laugh at myself and say when does that movie end?

I put my voice with the voices of people who condemn this kind of treatment. The victim of this is not the American government but the American citizens. That's the truth.

The Tribunal President confirmed that the Personal Representative had no further evidence to present and that the Detainee had no previously approved witnesses to present to the Tribunal and closed the open session.

The Tribunal President explained the remainder of the Tribunal process to the Detainee and adjourned the open session.
