ID: 00965032171103	Title: 302 20030428
Narrative:
302 20030428
[redacted] was interviewed at Camp Delta, United States Naval Base, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba by Special Agent [redacted] Federal Bureau of Investigation and a representative of a foreign government. The interview was conducted in the English language. After being advised of the purpose of the interview, [redacted] thereafter provided the following information:
[redacted] began the interview inquiring as to when he would be released and was told that investigators continued to work on closing his file. [redacted] then asked about torture saying that several detainees have claimed that they were tortured in Bagram and saying that he heard one or two have been killed. [redacted] was never tortured nor has he seen anyone tortured. [redacted] did say that two detainees have recently complained of being sexually assaulted in the interview rooms. [redacted] did not say who the detainees were but did say that they were embarrassed because an interrogator had pulled their trousers down during the interview and sexually assaulted that individual. [redacted] felt that such practices "might create a new terrorist."
[redacted] was shown various pictures and asked about a variety of names during the interview. [redacted] could not identify any of the pictures with certainty. The following names were presented to [redacted]
[redacted] could not say for certain that he knew any of these individuals, but did say that he knew [redacted]
[redacted] spoke of two men he knew from Afghanistan, [redacted] was described as [redacted] very religious, and quiet. [redacted] did not get along and [redacted] was described as being loud and not very well liked. [redacted] also very religious.
[redacted] was asked about and answered questions regarding the family of [redacted] indicated that the family was religious but he did not think they had extremist views. He felt that they believed in jihad for the right cause, but he did know of any of them going to fight it. [redacted]
